

Witness Biographies

TED DEUTCH

AJC Chief Executive Officer

Ted Deutch assumed the role of CEO of American Jewish Committee (AJC) on October 1, 2022. He joined AJC following more than 12 years of service in the United States House of Representatives, representing Broward and Palm Beach Counties in Florida.

In Congress, Ted served as chair of the House Ethics Committee, a senior member of the House Judiciary Committee, and a senior member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, on which he served as chair of the Middle East, North Africa, and Global Counterterrorism Subcommittee.

As a founding co-chair of the House Bipartisan Task Force for Combating Antisemitism, Ted spoke passionately on the House floor, confronting colleagues who invoked antisemitic tropes or disparaged Israel. In response to rising hatred on social media, he helped launch an inter-parliamentary coalition to combat online antisemitism with legislators from Canada, Israel, the United Kingdom, and Australia.

MARINA ROSENBERG

Senior Vice President, International Affairs, Anti-Defamation League

As Senior Vice President, International Affairs, Marina G. Rosenberg oversees ADL's work combating antisemitism and hate outside of the United States as well as supporting the Jewish and democratic state of Israel. She leads a team of professionals in the U.S., Europe and Israel pursuing ADL's mission of fighting antisemitism globally, promoting the security of Jewish communities around the world, and advocating for a safe and democratic State of Israel. A former ambassador and diplomat, Marina joined ADL in early 2023 after 16 years of service in Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs leading diplomatic missions abroad.

RABBI ERIC FUSFIELD

Deputy Director of the B'nai B'rith International Center for Human Rights and Public Policy Policy Director of Legislative Affairs for B'nai B'rith International

Rabbi Eric Fusfield has served as Deputy Director of the B'nai B'rith International Center for Human Rights and Public Policy since 2007 and as Director of Legislative Affairs for B'nai B'rith International since 2003. He is responsible for B'nai B'rith's policy advocacy and government relations, including formulating and promoting B'nai B'rith's agenda on Capitol Hill and representing the agency before Congress, the Executive branch, foreign governments, and international organizations.

STACY BURDETT

Consultant, Antisemitism Response and Prevention

Stacy Burdett works with policymakers, philanthropies, and other nonprofits on strategies to prevent and respond to antisemitism. She integrates those strategies to enhance corporate and university DEI programming to ensure a welcoming institutional culture for Jews and all communities. She has testified in Congress about antisemitism multiple times, including on the spike in antisemitism since the October 7, 2023 Hamas terror attacks.